Any failure by the Customer to comply with this provision and all applicable laws relating to the importation, exportation or re-exportation, transfer, distribution, sales, promotion, or marketing of the Goods will constitute a breach of an essential element of the Contract. Such a breach would give Cummins the right to seek appropriate remedies, including, but not limited to, immediate termination of the Contract and/or the right to elect not to recognize the warranties associated with the Goods. In its contracts with any third party involving the goods, the Customer agrees to impose on such third party the same obligations and requirements imposed on it by Cummins in this clause. 22.2. Any variation, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, to the Contract shall only be binding when agreed in writing and signed by Cummins.

22.3. If any part of the Contract is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that part shall, to the extent required, be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Contract shall not be affected.

22.4. No failure or delay by Cummins in exercising any right or remedy under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor preclude or restrict its further exercise.
